Key Takeaways

Key Takeaways: Step Into Fearless Leadership

- 1.Embrace your core values to guide decisions.
- Gather enough information to make an informed choice without overanalyzing.
- 3. Manage fear by acknowledging risks and preparing solutions.
- 4. Build a trusted support network to gain valuable insights.
- 5.Reflect on past decisions to improve future ones.

ACTION STEPS

Harness the power of fearless decision–making by asking yourself key questions along the way. What are your top three core values, and how do they shape your leadership approach? Gather 80% of the information before taking action. Make a list of potential risks for an upcoming decision then identify solutions to mitigate those risks. Can you identify three trusted individuals to offer insights during challenging choices? After making a key decision, take time to evaluate what went well and what could be improved. Be bold!

"Conviction thrives when decisions are rooted in purpose, not perfection."
